HAUS DER KUNST AND PUBLIC POSSESSION: PART TWO OF „MMMHAUS – MEET MAKE MOVE“

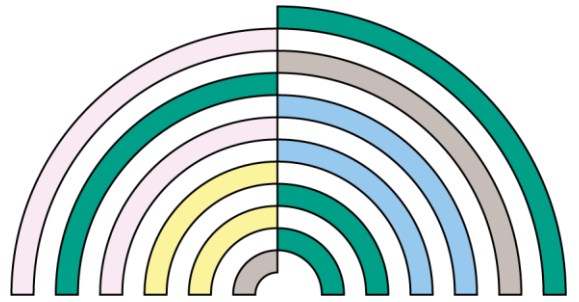

Design: Public Possession

Once again, Haus der Kunst and the Munich music label Public Possession present three days of creative activities and musical highlights. From 30 April to 2 May 25, visitors can expect a diverse programme focused on children and young adults, true to the motto 'Meet, Make, Move'.

To kick off this year's MMMHaus – Meet Make Move programme, Public Possession and Haus der Kunst are hosting a big party in the Westgalerie. The music label has put together an exciting line-up with musicians including a DJ set by Sedef Adasi and a live act by Cosmica Bandida.

On the following two days, the entire house will be filled with free workshops. On Thursday, May 1, the programme includes workshops for families with children. Participants can look forward to a wide range of workshops on singing, music, arts and crafts, drawing and more. The second day is dedicated to teenagers and young adults, with a large selection of activities ranging from screen printing and skating to upcycling and dance. The workshops are guided by experienced instructors from the local Munich scene. A special highlight is the dance workshop EVERYBODY DANCE in collaboration with the International DANCE Festival Munich. Participants will have the opportunity to explore different dance techniques and styles and exchange ideas with the renowned dancers and choreographers Zufit Simon, Serhat 'Saïd' Perhat and Black Pearl. The programme will be enriched by numerous participants on all days, including SpaceForSkate Skate School Munich, FREITAG, Caspar Plautz, the Haidhausen Music School and many more.

Valentino Betz and Marvin Schuhmann founded Public Possession in 2012 out of their shared interest in music, text, graphics and events. At the centre of their work is a music and fashion label, parties and events, as well as regular print publications. Founded as a music label by and for DJs, Public Possession is now more than ever an essential part of the international club culture. By cooperating with Haus der Kunst, they not only support the intergenerational creative dialogue, but also actively contribute to the development of Munich's lively cultural scene.

MMMHaus is presented by Haus der Kunst in cooperation with Public Possession. We would like to thank the International DANCE Festival Munich for their collaboration on the dance workshops.
