Super BOOKS 7: Independent Artists' Books Fair at Haus der Kunst

On 30 and 31 October 2026, Super BOOKS, the independent artists' books fair, takes place for the seventh time at Haus der Kunst. Super BOOKS 7 is admission-free, and features book presentations, alongside workshops for all ages, a programme of talks, performances and live broadcasts from the non-commercial Munich radio station Radio 80000.

Spanning two days, the event brings together 68 local, national and international artists, designers, publishers and institutions, including five universities, to present their latest works and engage directly with visitors. The artists' books fair focuses on publications that question and rethink the boundaries of books as a medium, with themes, formats, and techniques that are constantly expanding. Advocating the ethics of accessibility, which is practised through pricing and direct distribution, alternative publishing provides a counterweight to the conventional format of the publishing market. For the first time, Open Haus takes place simultaneously on Friday 30 October, offering free admission to all exhibitions from 4 pm to 10 pm and creating a new opportunity to connect people, artistic practice, and perspectives.

The diverse programme invites visitors of all ages to take part, exchange ideas, learn, and explore together, but also to relax in the reading corner or immerse themselves in the realm of sound. A particular highlight on both days is the accessible self-publishing workshop run by the independent publisher pirat*innenpresse. It is aimed at children and young people, and supported by sign language interpreters. On the evening of the first day, Salta art, together with Andrea Lissoni, artistic director of Haus der Kunst, present the new publication series "Encounters". The first three volumes are produced in collaboration with Haus der Kunst and based on dialogues between artists and art professionals, including Marta Minujín, Sandra Vásquez de la Horra and Cecila Vicuña.

On the second day, Radio 80000 sets up its studio at Haus der Kunst and broadcasts live. The programme also comprises a yoga session, a participatory performance with Olaf Probst, and a reading with activist and journalist Natalie Dedreux and artist Wenzel Rehbach about the book "Wo ich auf der Welt schon war". In conversation with Sabine Brantl, curator of Super BOOKS, the audience gains insights into the devolpment of their inclusive book and storytelling project. Our Mobile Bookshelf, which was launched at Super BOOKS a year ago, is now complemented by a changing, recurring programme, the Open Salon. Taking place on Saturday, the theme is "Traces of Black German Childhoods – Biographies and Memories after 1945", with historian and author Dr. Azziza B. Malanda. Super BOOKS 7 concludes with audio presentations by eleven students from Prof. Florian Hecker's "Sound und Experiment" class (Akademie der Bildenden Künste München).

Super BOOKS is a cooperation project between Haus der Kunst, AAP Archiv Künstlerpublikationen, Bayerische Staatsbibliothek and Akademie der Bildenden Künste München. Curated by Sabine Brantl (Haus der Kunst) with Hubert Kretschmer (AAP Archiv Künstlerpublikationen), and Dr. Antje Goetzke (Bayerische Staatsbibliothek).

For their annual support of the programme, we would like to thank our shareholders, the Free State of Bavaria, and the Gesellschaft der Freunde der Stiftung Haus der Kunst München e. V. Our special thanks go to our major supporter, the Alexander Tutsek-Stiftung, for its generous support of our work. We also thank the Ulli and Uwe Kai-Stiftung for its long-standing commitment. In addition, we thank the Beisheim Foundation for funding the “Third Place”.
